Square Meterage: Approx 251m² | Rateable Value: £6,600 | EPC Rating: D

Occupying a highly visible position on the busy and vibrant Lowestoft High Street, this substantial commercial unit presents an outstanding opportunity for a variety of business uses. With its traditional shop frontage, striking green façade, and expansive display windows, the property ensures strong street presence and excellent natural light throughout the main trading area.

The property offers a generous open-plan shop floor, providing flexibility for a wide range of layouts – ideal for retail, showroom, office, or service-based businesses. Beyond the main trading area, the unit benefits from multiple ancillary rooms that can be utilised as storage, staff facilities, or private workspaces. A WC is also located towards the rear for convenience.

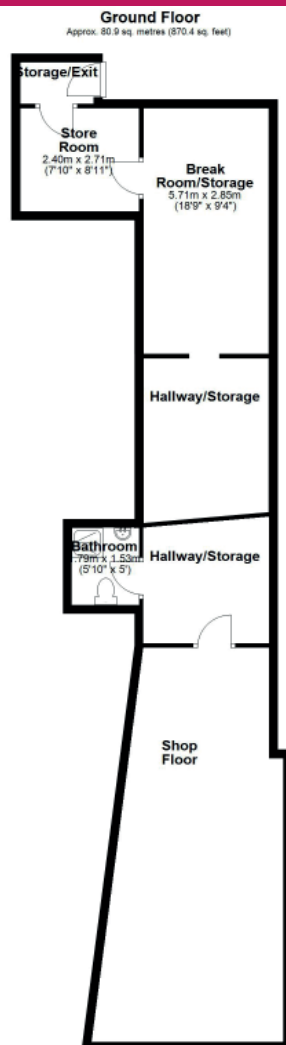

Situated on one of Lowestoft's main commercial thoroughfares, the property benefits from excellent footfall, a mix of independent traders and national retailers nearby, and great visibility to passing pedestrian and vehicular traffic. With public transport links close by and ample amenities within walking distance, this is an ideal spot for any business looking to grow and establish a presence in the town.
